Incident update - (from 02/06/2018 to 03/07/2018)

Anti-Social Behaviour Issues/Trends:

05/06/2018 – Report of a builder threatening the informant after doing some work on their house near Mold Road. The work hadn't been carried out properly and the informant had therefore contacted the builder to get it fixed. The builder refused to do the work. However, the builder has now started to fix the problem and no more threats have been made towards informant. No complaint made.

08/06/2018 – Report of parking issues between neighbours on Park Avenue which has resulted in a dispute. Issue was resolved by the neighbour moving their vehicle so that it wasn't causing an obstruction. Patrols will be carried out in order to monitor the parking issues.

22/06/2018 – Reports of a male free jumping on roofs in the Mercia Drive area. Male gave his name to informant. However, at this time, male cannot be located. If male is located, words of advice will be given.

26/06/2018 - Report of youths congregating along pathway leading to park opposite Erw Goed in the evening. Officers attended but negative sightings. This appears to be a regular issue and patrols are being carried out when possible. Officers will continue to monitor this area.

30/06/2018 – Report of a group of youths drinking and congregating near the Argoed Social Club. Individual approached the group and a male from the group was abusive towards them. Male has been identified and will be given a yellow card for ASB.

Crime Issues / Trends

Report of a male knocking on doors around the Pen-Y-Maes area telling individuals that he was there to read their meter. Informant asked for I.D, male showed it quickly and refused to show it again. Officers attended but negative sightings.

Reports of a group of youths congregating around the Argoed Social Club area and the pathway leading to Pen-y-Garreg Close. Litter found on the fields. Damage has been caused to the dugouts. Officers will continue to patrol and monitor this area.

Report of flower pot missing from front garden near to Mercia Drive. No CCTV, no other lines of enquiry. Filed as undetected.

Young person walking along Chambers Lane and was approached by a female and a male in a vehicle. They asked the young person if she wanted a lift. No VRM of vehicle obtained. Surrounding CCTV checked but negative.

Other News/PCSO activities:

Operation Landstat took place on Tuesday 26th June which involved PCSO's and PC's working together with PC's from the Roads Policing Unit in order to tackle speeding, seatbelt offences, driving whilst using a telephone offences, drink and drug driving and dangerous and careless driving offences. The areas that were tackled included Mynydd Isa, Buckley, Ewloe, Hawarden and Mold. The day proved to be a success as a number of individuals were stopped for committing these offences and tickets were issued to them and roads were made safer.

PCSO Sammi Salisbury and PC Graeme Allen will be conducting speed checks and issuing tickets around the Mynydd Isa/ New Brighton areas one evening in the week commencing 2nd July 2018.
